

Freshman Snapshot Class of 2015

BY THE NUMBERS

Number of freshman applicants: 21,005
 Number offered admission: 13,534
 Number accepting the offers of admission: 5,054
 Percentage of the Class of 2015 accepting under the Early Decision Plan: 20%
 Number of valedictorians and salutatorians in the freshman class: 147
 Number of freshmen who are participating in the Corps of Cadets: 366
 Number of freshmen who are legacies (legacy = mother, father, grandparent, sister, brother): 1,378
 Number of high schools represented in the freshman class: 1,363

AVERAGE GPA & SAT OF STUDENTS OFFERED ADMISSION

Average High School GPA: 4.00; the middle 50% of students had GPAs ranging from 3.81 to 4.24.
 Average SAT Reasoning Test score (critical reading + math): 1250; the middle 50% of students had SAT scores ranging from 1160 to 1340.
 Percentage of freshmen who scored ≥ 500 SAT critical reading: 87.3%
 Percentage of freshmen who scored ≥ 500 SAT math: 90.8%

MAJORS

Most popular academic programs for incoming freshmen:

- #1 University Studies
- #2 General Engineering
- #3 Biology
- #4 Business (undecided)
- #5 Psychology
- #6 Human Nutrition, Foods, & Exercise
- #7 Architecture
- #8 Biochemistry
- #9 Chemistry
- #10 International Studies & Communication

FROM NEAR & FAR

Top 5 home states of incoming out-of-state freshmen:

- #1 state - Maryland
- #2 state - New Jersey
- #3 state - Pennsylvania
- #4 state - North Carolina
- #5 state - New York

Number of states and territories represented: 49 states, 3 territories

Countries represented: 84

Number of international students in the freshman class: 109

GENDER & ETHNICITY

Gender: 57% male; 43% female

Race:

American Indian: <1%
Asian: 13%

Black: 4%
Hispanic: 6%

Pacific Islander/Native Hawaiian: <1%
Unknown/Other: 8%

White: 69%

All data current as of May 15, 2011

Snapshot of Students Offered Admission 2011

